LEADERS

- A global network of 15,000 professionals across life sciences, health, financial services, technology and government focussed on ageing well
- A subsidiary of the LSX, a network of 60,000 life science professionals and investors
- Curator of B2B conferences and exhibitions including the Longevity Leaders World

“I don’t work on longevity. I work on keeping people healthy” – Aubrey De Grey, SENS Research Institute

“Lifespan extension has never really been the goal of ageing science, nor should it”
– S. Jay Olshansky, University of Chicago

“Some of the key areas that we really need to address to increase our longevity are things like nutrition, exercise, sleep and stress.”
– Eric Verdin, The Buck Institute for Research on Aging
